In Laces

As the Spring season advances, it becomes still more evident that laces, especially of an extremely light and filmy character, are to be a very important feature of the fashionable costume. Particularly is this true regarding frocks and dresses intended for dancing wear.

Tunics, bouffant hip draperies and full flouncings of lace (or of fabric combined with lace) are very popular. For these the 18 and 27-inch widths are here in a variety of beautiful designs—and we have all-overs to match.

Tassels and Buttons Are Leading Trimmings inch. Demi flouncings and edgings are quite fashionable, too—especially for ruffles on misses' dresses.

The vogue for transparent effects in laces will be strong all season—and our stock of nets and flouncings for draping over nets is very complete. Frilling laces for neck decoration are also popular—at 25c to 90c a yard.

The "Camisole"

This will be a leading style feature for Spring—and as the making of it is so simple, we have prepared for a great business in laces suitable for Camisole purposes. Prices are 25c to 90c a yard.

colored and painted galalith, in combination with silk tassels, used on many of the dresses now. We have all the latest ideas in tassels at 10c to 50c.

Buttons are in flat, conical ball, oval and many other odd shapes—and we have an immense variety.

One line at 30c dozen, in white, mauve, brown, pink, grey and turquoise, with brilliant centres. Another line at 50c dozen in the same color range, with hand-painted effect.

THE overdressed child of a decade ago no longer appears in her elaborate lace- and ribbon-trimmed frock. Modern mothers display cultured taste in selecting dresses of charming simplicity. There are party frocks, of course, for "special-occasion" wear which are fairylike and dainty, but the attractive models on this page are for practical wear. The materials chosen for these frocks are washable and will successfully withstand the wear and tear of weekly laundering.

Since cross-stitch embroidery has been revived it is extensively used to decorate children's frocks. An effective example of this is illustrated by the model of fine white linen with a cross-stitch design done in tones of brown. The bodice is gathered to the yoke and again to the narrow belt. The bishop sleeves have turned-back cuffs, and the skirt has three inch-wide hand-run tucks adorning the hem.

An extremely modish and comfortable frock is the one of white linen embroidered with black and white. Of the one-piece variety, this model has a box pleat directly down the center front. The collar, cuffs and yoke are embroidered, and the broad belt is fastened with two embroidered buttons.

Almost of a smocklike severity is the smart little frock of natural-colored linen. The turned-down collar, cuffs and chemisette are of white linen embroidered with white coinspots outlined with dark blue. Straps of the tan linen caught with embroidered buttons trim the chemisette.

A little touch of the Persian is introduced on the frock of white coarse woven linen. Tones of blue, red, yellow and green appear in the embroidery. The box pleat is buttonhole-stitched with blue and the buttons are embroidered to harmonize with the design used on the frock.

Dark brown among the colored frocks is considered the most serviceable, and the linen used for this model is of a rich tobacco tone. The chemisette, turned-down collar and cuffs are of sheer white linen, buttonhole-stitched in square scallops on the edges. A conventionalized flower design is embroidered on each button.

Decidedly out of the ordinary is the handsome dress of white pique with the broad black belt of velvet. The collar and cuffs are embroidered with blue and white and a flat bow of the velvet finishes the collar. Two rows of flat pearl buttons adorn the front and white crocheted buttons add a note of contrast to the belt.

These are a collection of frocks which will be suitable for almost any occasion, and your little daughter's outfit should boast of four or five dresses of this variety.

Hamilton Bowlers Rolled Well In The Singles — Schreiber Team Here On Wednesday

Schreiber Team Will Pay Here Wednesday Against Picked Team

Visseau Was High With 598, Smith and Culp Followed Closely Behind.

The Hamilton bowlers who took in the Buffalo trip with the intention of bringing back some of the bacon failed in their attempt, and although they rolled some good scores they should have done better. Stage right played an important part in the five-man team, and in the first string the local boys only rolled a little better than seven hundred. After the five-man event it was thought that the right was over, and when the boys started in the doubles the morning it looked as if they would put on scores that would stand out in front of all others, but the going was too heavy, and after putting on good scores in the first game they fell away and failed to total any more than 100 hundred.

Freddie Smith made the Buffalo fans sit up and take notice in the morning when he started off his doubles with five strikes. The next ball was a perfect hit, but the ten pins joggled, and he rolled on the double, and after putting on good scores in the first game they fell away and failed to total any more than 100 hundred.

Northern Ontario Champions Will Be the Attraction Here In Last Game of Season.

The news of the Schreiber hockey team playing here on Wednesday night next at the "Alet Arena is sure causing a lot of interest, and despite the fact that the news was only circulated yesterday, there promises to be a big crowd on hand.

The Schreiber team come over here for the exhibition game and the local club will have their work cut out in holding the Western boys to any kind of a score. Charles McIntosh, an old Hamilton boy, is captain of the Schreiber team, and has held that position for the past two years. Charles is well known in Hamilton, having lived here until a year ago, and during his stay here played on many baseball and football teams.

The Schreiber team played a game last night with T. R. and A. A. team, and won 2-0, and were beaten by a one goal lead, but according to reports they should have been returned with a bad break, can be blamed for the loss.

The Hamilton team will be picked from the Centrals, and Hamilton Hockey Club and will likely play a one goal lead, but according to reports they should have been returned with a bad break, can be blamed for the loss.

HAMILTON STOVE AND HEARTH MATCH.

The office bunch of the Hamilton Stove and Hearth Co. did not have a chance in their match at the Brunswick Academy against the Works team, which Bill Fricke managed. The veterans had the pot still pushed safe all three games, and won pulled in spite of the pinch hitting sent in by the white-collared brigade.

At that, Doug did pretty well, but outside of the cashier, nothing could stop the flying works team last night.

THE I.L.C. MATCH.

The Iron House Club of the International Harvester Co. held the I.L.C. match at the Brunswick Academy last night. Gilhooley Is Not Showing Much Class For Chance's Team

Manager Kelly has a great deal to say regarding the catching department. His outfielders are all portside hitters, and he is looking for a right handed one. He has a couple of highly recommended local candidates, but he is not sure of them. He will likely join the team at Montreal for a tryout.

The catching department is giving some worry as the lack of season's practice has left the players in a state of confusion. The players were not near to it than to do a marathon past out the railroad track, noticing on their way that the wind had broken down the wire and wooden backstop. The training consisted entirely of leg work, a morning and afternoon pilgrimage, walking or running where ever fancy and Jim Thorpe led Jim, being a question on the ground. The pace. Others can beat him playing baseball, but he is the champion cross-country runner of the lot and runs in front of the rest again.

There is much interest in camp over the mission of Harry Hempstead to California in the winter of last year. The infield could stand shaker; there isn't any doubt of that. Fred Snodgrass has been put out of a lot of earnestness in his third season, and the Chicago Cubs are looking for a new infielder. It is known how I'd be on balls hit to either side of the plate. Snodgrass is in the line of a pitcher, and he is not having had enough experience. I think I can play the bat, and I know I'd like to play it. I'd rather play the infield, because you're in the game more often.

St. Louis, Mo. March 21.—Extremely pleased with the appearance of his squad, Joe Kelley left St. Louis for Martin Springs Tex., last night with his wife and children. Hamilton Horse Show Assured June 8, 19, 20

Officers Elected and the Project Entered Upon With Much Enthusiasm.

There was a very enthusiastic gathering of prominent city men in the Board of Trade rooms last night to consider the advisability of holding a Hamilton Horse Show. The project was launched, would induce local people to breed good horses more extensively, and would be a source of revenue for the city.

The meeting unanimously approved the idea. Mr. Hope strongly endorsed the idea of an annual horse show, and pointed to the success which had attended the shows of surrounding cities. He considered the horse show project, once launched, would induce local people to breed good horses more extensively, and would be a source of revenue for the city.

Claude Graham White Ready For Flight

Aviator Made Announcement At Annual Dinner Yesterday.

New York, March 21.—A cable from London to the Herald this morning stated:

Claude Graham-White announced that he is ready for a trans-Atlantic flight at the first annual dinner of the Royal Automobile Club last night at the London Aerodrome, at the Royal Automobile Club last night at the London Aerodrome, at the Royal Automobile Club last night at the London Aerodrome.

"An American built the first practical aeroplane," he said, "and the first man to fly across the channel. It is up to an Englishman to be the first to fly the Atlantic."

Graham-White said it was a mistake to believe a trans-Atlantic flight would not be successful in the near future and explained that he already had had submitted to him a design for a machine that could make the trip. He said the speakers were enthusiastic over the project, and the support of the nation for the enterprise of great magnitude.

Marin, Tex. March 21.—With less than a week to stay in Marin, the Giants missed a day completely yesterday. It was the first day that they were a total loss so far as concerns baseball practice. A caprice of the weather called for a right handed one. He has a couple of highly recommended local candidates, but he is not sure of them. He will likely join the team at Montreal for a tryout.

THE ART OF DEBATE

Being the essence of the average speech addressed by the average M.P. in answer to a political opponent in the House.

THE THEATRES AND THOSE IN THE FOOTLIGHT GLOW

Though local music-lovers were disappointed at the cancellation of the Canadian management of the Quilman Opera Company, it is probable that it will be heard here next season, since Mr. Quilman has been in New York this week, making arrangements for a tour of the States next season. The facts which led up to the abandonment of the tour were these:

While grand opera on a magnificent scale is as not profitable, Mr. Quilman made up fairly well in South Africa. Receipts there were sufficient to cover all expenses, and take the huge company to Australia, considering that the expenses of the company are between $15,000 and $20,000 per week, this was a good showing. The Australian tour netted $50,000 profit. It was only when Canada was reached that actual trouble began. The audiences were fairly good at Victoria, Calgary, and Winnipeg, but the losses were nevertheless heavy. The Ottawa engagement was the semi-final show. There the average receipts were $800 per performance.

At Montreal, with a month's season ahead of them, but he had six weeks to go to about $100. Despite the fact that the critics declared that nothing like the production had been seen on the continent outside the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, the receipts of the second night were only $200. Mr. Quilman was satisfied that the Toronto management would be profitable, but it being a safe estimate that the two weeks there would yield receipts of at least $40,000, but he had six weeks to wait before reaching there. He therefore decided that the best thing to do was to get back to England as soon as possible, and when he next came to Canada to come via the Atlantic instead of the Pacific. It is not true that he has abandoned the Canadian field for good, but he has decided that America an endeavor will be made to secure profitable bookings on both sides of the boundary line, by calling his engagements in Toronto, Hamilton, London, Brantford, Windsor, and Kingston. Mr. Quilman wrote to A. J. Small: "Incidentally I may remark that I have never paid so much per business in my whole career."

In giving her views recently on the subject of musical study, Mrs. Clara Butt declared that opera singers whose musical knowledge began in the cradle under the greatest of all masters—the mother. "It seems to be the impression of singing teachers," said the contralto, "that voice students should not begin serious study until they are about sixteen. In this connection consider my case. I made my first public appearance when I was fourteen and sang 'Ora Pro Nobis' from Gounod's 'Werther.' I was fortunate in having a thoroughly sensible teacher, Dr. W. Rothman, a non-believer in 'tricks.' He had no fantastic way of doing things, but merely insisted on the beautiful in my voice and developed it, at the same time pointing out faults and explaining how to overcome them. The principal part of the process was making me realize where and how I was wrong. After all, singing is singing, and I am convinced that my master's idea of letting the voice grow with normal exercise and without excess was the best. It was certainly better than hours of torture. Real singing, with real music is immeasurably better than singing of conjecture. I do not mean that the student can omit preparatory work—'collegiate and scales are extremely useful. But by several years' dreaming of theories about which there is dispute? Even if, as some authorities modestly claim, the real old Italian school has been rediscovered, what is the benefit? An art teacher might rediscover the actual movements used by Raphael, but to create a student who could duplicate the 'Sistine Madonna' is quite another story."

Paderewski is growing increasingly popular in Canada, according to the box office figures at Toronto. At his recent in Hamilton last week drew, in round figures, $7,500, while the figure for his former Toronto several years ago was only $2,500. And in a season remarkable for its big musical events. The Polish pianist travels in state in his private car, his party always consists, in addition to himself, of Madame Paderewski, her maid, his own valet, his secretary, the travelling business manager, and often the tuner, sent by the piano company. Then there is usually some pair. Nine years ago it was a pair of locustian parrots, which Madame Paderewski had brought from Australia. The last time he was here the pet was a mischievous Boston terrier that they bought in Boston. This dog is really the ruler of the household at Rossmore, Paderewski's home in Switzerland. After leaving America in the spring Paderewski will give his usual recitals in London, and then devote the entire summer to rest in Switzerland.

The Catholic theatre movement has spread to Philadelphia, and plans to establish a Catholic theatre in that city. Some considered objectionable are being made. A project for building a theatre there in which only plays meeting with the views of the Catholic Church authorities will be produced will be considered when the movement is well under way.

Fifty thousand dollars is the value of a thoroughly ugly face, or so thinks Mr. John Bunney, the motion picture producer. He will receive that amount of insurance money if some misanthrope should make him handsome. Recently Mr. Bunney met Mr. Hugo Ledermann, manager for an insurance company. "You're getting better looking," remarked Mr. Ledermann. "Heaven forbid," returned the actor. "If that ever happens I'll lose my next tickle." Mr. Ledermann suggested insurance against such a calamity. "Never thought of that, but I'll take you up," was the reply. "What will a policy for $50,000 against fatal beauty or accident to my face cost?" The papers were mailed to Mr. Bunney after he had returned to New York.

William Faversham will represent America in a series of international Shakespearean performances, to be given in the Stratford Memorial Theatre, Stratford-on-Avon, England, beginning next August. Mr. Faversham was invited to appear at Stratford by H. F. Planché, a leader in the Shakespeare memorial movement. He accepted and will play "Iago" in "Othello" and Mark Antony in "Julius Caesar." Sir Herbert Tree and Mr. Mount-Salis will be on the grand old Shakespearean festival.

The long New York season of "Grumpy" during which time the production has been known as one of the most unqualified successes of recent years, is about to end on April 25. Cyril Maude will then start for Canada to go on a flying trip for a few weeks' duration, following which he will return to London for a brief season, there, under Lieber management. He will return to this country in September to take "Grumpy" on tour.

Margaret Axilén began her New York engagement this week. Her opening bill was "The Tempest of the Shores," with other Shakespearean comedies to follow for two weeks. At the end of that time she will revive "Oscar Wilde's comedy," "Lady Windermere's Fan." This production is looked forward to in theatrical circles with a great deal of interest. It has not been revived in a number of years, although one of the most justly celebrated of the Wilde plays.

At last Bill Burke is to play the part of an American girl in an American play, after her long line of French and English ingenues. Her new comedy is entitled "Jerry." It was written by Catherine Caldwell Cutler, and the scene is to be played by the heroine in scenes.

A bill providing a penalty of imprisonment for from one to six months for theatre ticket speculation has been introduced in the New York Legislature. James Montclair's new play is called "Come Home, Smith."

The management of the Winter Garden in New York has established a ballet season.

SCHUMANN-HEINK MONDAY NIGHT.

The popularity of Mme. Schumann-Heink, the contralto, who is to give a recital at the Grand next Monday evening, March 23rd, has reached remarkable proportions. In the past season her net profits in such cities as New York, Chicago, Boston, and San Francisco have been from $2,500 to $5,000 per concert, the latter figure being her share of her fareless concert in San Francisco a short time ago. Her bookings for the present season are such that no further engagements can be made. She is probably the highest priced concert singer in the world, and her earnings have run in the neighborhood of a quarter of a million dollars. Born in Lichen, of an Italian mother and an Austrian father, and spending most of her life in Germany, Schumann-Heink can easily claim the title of the most cosmopolitan of singers. Her husband, Heinrich, a concert singer, pianist and critic, recently said: "Great as she is in opera, I consider the popular contralto as a concert singer, untroubled." Local music lovers will have an opportunity to judge for themselves when the popular singer appears at the grand next Monday. Her bookings for the season are such that no further engagements can be made.

When the play opens a razzak thief, who has been smuggled into the house by a new maid, has found out all the secrets and is about to make his "get-away," when he is discovered by the groom, who mistakes him for the expert detective and arrests him. When the thief finds he is not going to be turned over to the officers of the law, but rather to be treated as an honored guest, he can scarcely resist the situation. He finally does, however, and, as a result, a razzak thief, calmly proceeds to strangle everything he can lay his hands on. Resemblance to the disappearance of one valuable article after another is accredited by the father and son-in-law, who imagine that they are really and secretly the plunder, though they have no recollection of the act.

"Stop, Thief!" ran for an entire season in New York, six months in Chicago and three months in Boston. It will be presented here by the original company, including Mary Ryan, Sam Carey, Edna Hubbard, Jerry Ames, Ruth Chester, Van Lloyd, Elsie Seed and James C. Marlowe, Elsie Guyan and Frances Fielding.

"SWEETHEARTS."

A chorus of "Gossings" is to be heard at the Grand shortly in the new Victor musical comedy, "Sweethearts." With the unusual dramatic action of this much written-about musical work there is no longer room for the "squeak," the "broiler," the "pony" or "show girl." They must

Tickets may be secured from any of the choir members.

AT THE GRAND

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" is being presented at the Grand this afternoon and evening. The story of daily life in the South is quite as interesting as ever, and the present production is somewhat better than former years.

"THE OLD HOMESTEAD"

"The Old Homestead" will be seen at the Grand next Tuesday and Wednesday evening and Wednesday matinee. Filming all of the pleasing features of song, the choral effects, with a organ accompaniment in the third act, and the other interesting and unusual embellishments, Denman Thompson's famous old New England idyl, "The Old Homestead" would still be one of the best enduring plays of the modern theatre. More than thirty years ago, a Hamilton printer, Denman Thompson, himself one of the best character actors, roughly, but with a marvellous and seemingly intuitive knowledge of the most obscure phases of human emotion, shaped an unpretentious small drama, "John Whitebait." At the outset it told its story in brief scenes of one act. Eventually it grew into a melodramatic comedy that filled the stage for a good three hours. Many reasons have been given for the abiding success and popularity of this famous New England classic. One may object to its want of regularity or rigid conformity with the set rules of the drama, but never has anyone been able to shake its grasp upon the affections of the playgoers. Conventions, impulses, earnest and honest old Uncle John, Aunt Matilda, and his crew of many years. Beth Perkins, Ricketty Ann, Whittling Bob, and the other characters, from the old Harriet Beecher, Jack Harding, the Improbable, Reuben Whitcomb, the Vandal, Henry Hopkins, John and Susan, and all the other well-remembered and always welcome characters in the same drama, have been so true and attention now as they have done for more than two decades.

"STOP, THIEF."

A wealthy man and his son-in-law are both kleptomaniacs, though neither of them knows it. The son-in-law, who is the day before the wedding of the rich man's daughter, and a large number of very valuable presents, and having arrived, the prospective husband is to watch over and put back any of the valuables he may surreptitiously hide away. This is the starting beginning of the story told in "Stop, Thief." The new farce to be revealed at the Grand the week after next.

When the play opens a razzak thief, who has been smuggled into the house by a new maid, has found out all the secrets and is about to make his "get-away," when he is discovered by the groom, who mistakes him for the expert detective and arrests him. When the thief finds he is not going to be turned over to the officers of the law, but rather to be treated as an honored guest, he can scarcely resist the situation. He finally does, however, and, as a result, a razzak thief, calmly proceeds to strangle everything he can lay his hands on. "SWEETHEARTS."

A chorus of "Gossings" is to be heard at the Grand shortly in the new Victor musical comedy, "Sweethearts." With the unusual dramatic action of this much written-about musical work there is no longer room for the "squeak," the "broiler," the "pony" or "show girl." They must be "Gossings," and are called so to the action of the piece with a veritable Mother Goose to watch over them. Also in decided contrast to the chorus and that opera lovers have been made to regard as a joke in years back is the fact that the "Sweethearts" gossings must sing, and as what is considered to be the best work of the foremost American composer, Victor Herbert, has gone into "Sweethearts," they must sing as nightingales and not as a gossing itself. It is told that for this big singing production almost as much care was spent on the selection of the chorus members as on the choice of the principal players.

"GIRL OF THE UNDERWORLD."

"Girl of the Underworld," in the title of the attraction which will be presented at the Grand next Friday and Saturday. The story tells of a young girl who has been reared in the country and has come to New York to make her fortune. She is a powerful drama around her that is full of heart interest and grips the audience from start to finish. Much comedy is introduced, which, while not interfering with the action of the story, adds greatly to the interest of the situation.

"THE FIREFLY."

Miss Edith Thayer, that charming little prima donna, will come to this city in a new comedy opera entitled "The Firefly," at the Grand next month. "The Firefly" was written by Otto Harbach and Rudolf Friml. It is a comedy opera, and Thayer's ability, have provided her a vehicle in which to display her versatility and that wholehearted smiling which quickly makes friends for her and keeps her the cynosure of every eye.

Miss Thayer's charm, personality and enthusiasm are always evident in her every appearance. She will please quickly finds response in bountiful applause everywhere.

"THE RED WIDOW."

"The Red Widow" is to be one of the attractions at the Grand shortly. The piece deals with an interesting life of the new rich, and is full of situations, enchanting in its melodies, snappy lyrics and a plot that is so good that it makes one go from the theatre feeling satisfied that they have been attractively entertained.

"THE BIRD OF PARADISE."

In "The Bird of Paradise," Walter Tully has successfully demonstrated the ravishing effect of tropical life upon a man of letters. TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL.

The largest attendance of delegates at a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council this year was recorded last night, and many matters of importance were given consideration. Credentials were received from the Boot and Shoe Workers' Local 234, and also from the Operative Plasterers.

A communication from the Great Waterways Union asked the appointing of a Hamilton delegate to make one of a party which will visit Ottawa shortly. The Council took no action.

The Labor day demonstration was considered, and it was decided to have one this year as usual. A committee will be appointed next meeting. The usual programme of sports will be run off, but a parade will not likely be held.

A communication from J. H. Burroughs, M. P., of Peterborough, asked the Council to pass a resolution on his proposed bill regarding tariff charges on products made in countries where cheap labor conditions prevail. It was referred to the President of the Trades Congress of Canada.

The Council commended Allan Strohmeier upon having obtained exemption of taxation for the H. A. A. grounds, and also for his stand in connection with the purchase of a quarry without submitting it to the people. The Board of Control will be asked to keep the Council posted in regard to any changes to be made in connection with the H. A. A. grounds taxation.

A SPADIS IS A SPADIS.

Mr. Verville, M. P. (Macdonald), does not hesitate to call a spade a spade, when the occasion calls for it. Speaking in the House on the necessity of supervising more carefully the advertisements of companies seeking labor, he said that he had seen a company which advertised that there was a shortage of skilled labor in Canada.

The Financial Times devotes more attention to this question of the encouragement of immigration into Canada in face of the large amount of unemployed labor already here. The Times thinks that there is a large amount of surplus labor here as is alleged, and "vociferously" complained of by the labor organizations. In support of this view, the Times quotes a despatch sent to the Star as follows:

"London, Ont.—At a monster meeting of farmers from all over the district held last evening, Thos. Bennett of Stratford, was elected to go to England at once and try and solve the problem of the labor shortage by bringing out one thousand young, unmarried men. He will try especially to secure young Scotchmen and Irishmen. He was instructed to accompany them all the way back, to see that they were not estranged by other agents at Montreal and Toronto."

Also this story from the Manitoba Free Press:

"A party of fifty farm laborers from rural England and Scotland, who crossed over on the Virginian, arrived at the C. P. R. Depot yesterday morning. Their fares had been paid by

REMARKABLE CURE OF RHEUMATISM

Cured by "Fruit-a-stir"

Exactly. And that is all that the labor organizations care for, but when it comes to deliberations and allegedly flooding the country indiscriminately with all classes of labor, competent or incompetent, totally ignorant to the conditions they must face, brought here regardless of the suffering and gross injustice involved to thousands of helpless families, then the labor organizations have a right to object and to object "vociferously."

FEBRUARY TRADES DISPUTES

The record of the Department of Labor for February shows that there was a pronounced decrease in the number of days lost through strikes and lock-outs, as compared with the previous month, although the number was somewhat larger than for the corresponding month of last year. The increase was largely due to a settlement of a strike of shoe machine workers in Quebec, about 3,000 employees returning to work on Feb. 14. There were altogether seven disputes in existence in Canada during February, as against five in January and nine in February of last year. About twenty-three (23) of 4,000 employees were involved in these disputes. Approximately 66,527 working days were lost as compared with 17,590 during January, and 42,830 during February of last year. Three disputes commenced during February, none of which were serious from the standpoint of numbers affected. They were all, moreover, of short duration. The dispute of coal miners on Vancouver Island kept unemployed workers at the Montreal remained unsettled at the end of February.

PRICES SLIGHTLY DOWNWARD.

The Department of Labor's index number of wholesale prices stood at 135.1 for February, as compared with 135.1 in January and 135.5 in February, 1913. Dairy products, especially eggs, were lower, poultry, sheep, cattle and beef showed declines, but grains and foodstuffs were slightly higher. Retail prices of textiles were also down slightly, but lumber, paint and oils, and furs averaged slightly higher. In retail prices, however, were advancing, and butter advanced, but eggs declined considerably.

LABORERS ORGANIZE.

Montreal laborers working in connection with the city are to be organized into a powerful labor union. The matter being considered by labor men, and the new union will be affiliated with the Trades and Labor Council of Canada, and American Federation of Labor. Organization matters will be held soon as arrangements can be made.

LABOR CANDIDATES.

In Montreal the labor party has three candidates in the field for civic honors: Controller, Mayor, and alderman. The candidates are: Controller, John J. McLaughlin; Mayor, John J. McLaughlin; and alderman, John J. McLaughlin. The candidates are: Controller, John J. McLaughlin; Mayor, John J. McLaughlin; and alderman, John J. McLaughlin.

MAJOR MEMBERSHIP RECORD.

Records for membership were broken in the United Mine Workers' organization during 1913, according to the report of the International officers. The paid-up membership on Dec. 31, as announced, was 415,121. The previous record, at the end of August, 1913, was 409,158 members. The paid-up members on Dec. 31, 1913, numbered 28,925.

INCREASE IN WAGES.

According to figures compiled by the Department of Labor at Washington show that wages in the United States have increased 29 per cent. in the past twenty years.

WANT UNION RATE.

Organized labor will, through its central and federated bodies, urge the Dominion and Provincial governments to insert a clause in all their contracts for government work that the union rate of wages be paid.

THE CARPENTERS.

According to the officials of the local Union, the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners paid out $250,000 in death benefits during the year just closed.

Redistribution Bill—Testimonial to Sir James

Toronto, March 21.—Both parties in the Legislature held councils of war yesterday. The Private Bills and Public Accounts Committees were called to meet in the morning. The former was cancelled, and the Public Accounts Committee met only for a moment, as the Liberal members who were to conduct the examinations were not able to be present.

A large number of matters were discussed at the Government caucus. Mr. John McFarlan, the new member for East Middlesex, was made Chairman, and proceeded to show that he knew something about conducting such a gathering by limiting speakers to two minutes each.

Respectively House license legislation was discussed. While no official information can be ascertained, it is understood that the Government has practically abandoned its intention to bring an anti-trading bill. It is years since this proposal was brought forward as an antidote to the Liberal "bolshevik" policy.

The result of these discussions is that the Government has decided to bring forward a resolution which will give the temperance issue before the House later in the session.

Another matter discussed was the question of extending the municipal franchise to married women who own property. There are two proposals in the House to-day on this subject. One is by Mr. J. C. Elliott (West Middlesex) and the other by Mr. J. Wesley Johnson (West Hastings). The debate on the second reading of Mr. Elliott's bill has been held up for two weeks to enable the Government to consider what course is to be adopted.

It is emphatically stated that no discussion was held on the probable matter being considered by labor men, and the new union will be affiliated with the Trades and Labor Council of Canada, and American Federation of Labor.

The Ontario District Council of Electrical Workers' Unions has undertaken a campaign for the immediate organization of employees of every electric light and power company in New England.

If a measure just introduced in the New York State Senate is enacted, it will be tantamount to giving a store employee in the first class cities to be permitted to work more than 70 hours a week, or more than 11 hours a day except Saturday, on which day he may work 15 hours.

It is understood that the redistribution bill is ready for presentation to the House, and will shortly be introduced by Mr. J. Wesley Johnson. The question of holding an election following redistribution will depend altogether on the time consumed to complete the voters' lists.

A GOOD MEDICINE FOR LITTLE ONES.

Baby's Own Tablets are an excellent remedy for little ones. They are a gentle laxative which soothe the stomach, regulate the bowels, banish constipation, worms, colds and simple fevers, and make the child happy, healthy and strong. Concerning them, Mrs. Pierre Trousseau, St. Roch de Lévis, Que., writes: "I have found Baby's Own Tablets an excellent remedy for my little ones and would not be without them. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Williams-McCormack Co., Brockville, Ont."

Sayings in Court.

A witness (at Treadwell): "It is a hard job at times, but I am not capable of what he is doing."

"I have had you to say?" asked the chairman at Kingston on a rather deaf witness who was charged with a friend for intoxication.

"Can't you hear what he has said?" retorted the chairman, and laughed.

A white-haired lady, who was asked for the death of her husband, replied for the death of her husband.

"Judge said: 'I have found Baby's Own Tablets an excellent remedy for my little ones and would not be without them. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Williams-McCormack Co., Brockville, Ont.'"

NORDHEIMER

"QUALITY-TONE"

PIANO

RENOWNED FOR DURABILITY

SIX distinct reasons why the Nordheimer is recognized as the Standard Piano of Canada:

- 1 Because the tone has that pure, delightful singing quality throughout the entire register.
- 2 Because its wonderful resourcefulness satisfies the demands of the most exacting pianist.
- 3 Because it gives the teacher the greatest opportunity for properly developing the pupil.
- 4 Because the touch is responsive, and will not tire the beginner.
- 5 Because of its artistic design and splendid durability.
- 6 Because its intrinsic value is greater, and therefore, gives a larger return for the outlay.

The Nordheimer Piano is manufactured from the finest materials throughout, and is an artistic production of the highest merit.

DOUBT HIS SANITY

James Jamieson Gave Magistrate an Argument.

Citizen Fined For Driving on Street Car Track.

"James Jamieson, you are charged with being a common vagrant. Do you plead guilty or not guilty?"

"I am," said Jamieson, and returned over the prisoner's head he exclaimed, "I am not guilty, and I want you to prove the assertion."

Acting Detective Brady told of Jamieson having slept at the police station for a dozen nights during the past three weeks.

"The other lodging houses were filled up, your worship," said Jamieson. "Give me your attention for a minute, Magistrate. Now I had ready money in my pocket to pay for a bed, and how can a man be a vagrant when he has money. Expound that in your mind."

"How much money did you have?" asked the Magistrate.

"Two shillings," Jamieson. "I don't think you are a fit man to be at large," returned the Magistrate.

"Well, I wish you could prove that," said the man.

"I will," quoth His Worship, and Jamieson was remanded for a week while a specialist peers into his mental storehouse.

Unbarring his coat, Joshua Miller, 10 Cannon street, exhibited a small wound in his left arm, which he declared was inflicted by a knife in the hands of Louisa Betzer. Miller was charged with assaulting the woman, but claimed that he hit her only in self defence.

She didn't take it humorously, and neither did the Magistrate, who found him $1, "just for fun."

Paul Schmidt, Jackson street east, was here to pay $20 before Judge Smith, a young man who was thought to be her husband, was also arrested, but it was stated that he had never been married to her and was allowed to go.

William Byles, York street, and J. C. Clark, James street north, were charged with having a dog in the street.

James Adams, Simcoe street east, possessed a rich and varied collection of objects to him giving free concerts in the early hours of the morning.

Although Thomas Flinnigan, who was given a week to find the man who gave him the worthless cheque, he passed, failed to make good, he was given the benefit of the doubt this morning and allowed to go.

Austin Kelly, 555 Bay street north, drove his car track on Bay street east yesterday afternoon after he had been warned not to do so by Constable Brammer.

Harry Bell promised to be good if given a chance and was allowed out on deferred sentence. He was found guilty of stealing a bottle of whiskey from Andrew G. Bain a week ago.

On the condition that he returns to Montreal, John Burnside was given on his liberty. He pleaded guilty to attempting to cash a forged cheque, and his birth date is ascertained.

Vincent Atkinson, 208 Bay street north, claimed that his son was over fourteen years of age when he was arranged for neglecting to send him to school and the case was adjourned until his birth date is ascertained.
